When the train was about an hour out of Goshen the tiger escaped from its rage by squeezing through the little window, the bars, of which were later found pull 1 off, as in the case of a convict breaking out of his will. The tigorawled over the tops of the three wagons that intervened tween its cage and the stock car and sprang into the car with the horses through the open door.

The wild beast landed upon the broad The wild beast landed upon the order back of the near at borse, a sturdy gray named Toby, sit king it claws into the first of the horse, which plunged and reared in fright. There was instartly a panic among the horses. The hostier in the cur ahead heard the cries of the fright taged horses and the growling of the liter.

The Bongal fell b tween Toby and The Bongal fell b tween Toby and the next horse, which he bit victously in the flank. He managed to make his way under six of the hoises, biting and stratching them, while the horses kicked and pluoged. They landed some telling blows with their hoofs on the savage heast. The tiger turned and attempted to go back to the say of the car, for it was found to the end of the car, for it was found dead under Toby, the horse on whose back it first landed

When the train clopped in Pough keepsie toe body of the t ger was drag ged out. The horses were all nervous, but all were on their feet. Those that were articked, all bandcome grays, bore some bad cut: and their legs and tails were red with blood, but all ec-cept Toby were able to walk to the show grounds, where they received treatment. No serious harm is expected to result to any of these.

Toby was wounded worse then the other norses, and he spent the day on s hed of straw covered with blankets. The circus men have no doubt it was he that killed the tiger. The dead animal was valued at $800.

MR BRYAN'S IMPRESSIONS .- "I predict that Cuba will be the cene of civil war: that internal strife growing out of dissertion among the political leaders will temporarily paralyze the industries of the island," Such is the opinion formed by Wil

Such is the opinion formed by William Jennings Bryan as a result of his trip to Cuba as a special correspondent. In his article in Collier's Weekly of June 9, Mr. Bryan will say:

"That the people of Cuba are capable of self-gover; acet is not a question open for disputs. Henry Clay declared, in his defense of the independence of the Bouth American republics, that God never made a people incapable of God never made a people incapable of self-government; that it was the doctrine of thrones and a reflection on Jehovah to say that He created people incapable of self-government, and left them to the government of kings and emperors. Clay's logic is sound. But one who visits Cuba and becomes acquainted with the people need not rest the case upon abstract principles, for he is convinced by observation that the Cubars not only have the right to govern themselves, but also have the ability to do so. That they will make mistakes is certain, but have we not made mistakes in the United Status?"

SNAKE IN THE NEST .- Thinking the eggs which she put under a hen for hatching purposes were being purloined, Mrs. Mary Woolford wer her chickenhouse near Laurei, Det., Thureday night to await the coming of the thief. Before she began her watch she placed her band beneath the hen to see if the eggs were still there. Inon a big blacksnake, which coiled around ber wrist. Screaming, she ran toward the house, but fell on the step. Her husband killed the snake. Mrs Woolf and fair ted and was unconscious for some time.

Digests what you

You need all kinds of food to maintain the body. Curtail this variety and some organ is underfed. It is for this reason that a diet is injurious. If you cannot digest good food your stomach is out of order and needs rest. You cannot go without food for that would mean starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat without the stomach's aid. Take it and you can rest your stomach without interrupting digestion. It is nature's own remedy. Never falls. Anderson Riggs, Sunny Lane, Tex., says: "I was troubled with indigestion ten years and tried many things and spent much money until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I am now feeling better than in five years and more like a boy-than in twenty."
